

The background of the poster is a dramatic scene featuring Moses on the left and the Sphinx on the right, both looking towards the center. They are set against a backdrop of massive, crashing blue waves. In the foreground, a large group of people in ancient Egyptian attire are walking across a dry, cracked landscape. The title 'BEEFREITT' is prominently displayed in the center, rendered in large, 3D, stone-like letters that appear to be part of the ancient world.
